SUSTAINABILITY

ENVIRONMENTAL

Our carbon footprint is small. We intend to comply with any SEC rules, if formally adopted, and California's environmental disclosure laws, if any.

Nexstar believes its Scope 1 and Scope 2 emissions are immaterial.

- Completed preliminary analysis of Scope 1 and Scope 2 emissions for 2022, 2023 and 2024
- Analyzed expenses related to Scope 1 and Scope 2 activities
- Applied the 2020 EPA estimate of societal costs per metric tons to emissions statistics

Nexstar regularly looks for ways to reduce its overall carbon footprint, including:

- Consolidating offices as a result of M&A
- Managing and reducing our data center footprint by limiting the number of data centers used and reducing the number of physical servers by utilizing a "private cloud infrastructure"
 - In 2024, we reduced our number of physical servers by one third
- Replacing tube-based transmission equipment with more efficient solid-state equipment consuming less power
- Replacing studio lighting at our television stations with more efficient, energy-saving LED lighting
- Disposing of fluorescent lighting in an environmentally friendly fashion
- Implementing a companywide e-waste recycling program
- Producing environment-focused special content and programming on our television stations

OUR CORE BELIEFS

We endeavor to limit our impact on the environment.

SUSTAINABILITY

OUR CORE BELIEFS

We are committed to treating employees fairly and promoting a positive work environment.

HUMAN CAPITAL

SUSTAINABILITY

TRAINING

We are committed to developing the talents of our employees and providing our employees workplace training. Our catalog of courses includes harassment prevention, ethics, supervisor/manager skills, and health-related safety. Selected Nexstar employees also participate in annual training to ensure understanding of antitrust laws and how they apply to Nexstar and media sales training program provided by a third-party vendor.

SAFETY AND WELLBEING

We are committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace for our employees. All employees are required to comply with our safety rules and are expected to actively contribute to making our company a safer place to work. Employees must immediately report accidents, injuries, and unsafe equipment, practices or conditions to a supervisor or other designated person. Threats or acts of violence or physical intimidation are prohibited and subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

The Company has long-standing policies designed to ensure safety in the workplace, and we require all employees to biannually participate in various training sessions.

In addition, our Employee Assistance Fund (EAF) is a way for Nexstar employees to help their colleagues in times of need. The EAF is entirely employee-funded, and intended for use by employees who are experiencing a financial setback due to natural disasters such as hurricanes or wildfires, or health emergencies, domestic abuse, etc.

SUSTAINABILITY

OUR CORE BELIEFS

We produce local and national news content that is fact-based and unbiased, and meets the highest standards of journalistic integrity.

PROGRAMMING

OUR JOURNALISM PRINCIPLES ARE:

ACCURACY AND TRUTH:	Seek the truth. Be diligent in the pursuit of accuracy. Ensure everything we air and publish is true. Getting the facts right is more important than being first to air, online or social media.
FAIRNESS & IMPARTIALITY:	We present all points of view. We reach out to the subjects or stakeholders of a story. We put our personal biases aside to approach the topics we cover with balance. Impartiality leads to trust.
INDEPENDENCE:	We avoid conflicts of interest. We do not act on behalf of special interests. We are professional.
TRANSPARENCY:	We source material, use evidence and documents. We explain our news gathering process when appropriate. We explain what we do not know when necessary or appropriate. We acknowledge mistakes, errors and omissions and correct them quickly and appropriately. We apologize.
MINIMIZE HARM:	Our reporting has an impact on the lives of others. We treat people with respect and understand their right to privacy. We show compassion to those affected by our coverage.
RESPECT THE LAW:	We respect the laws of all jurisdictions—locally, nationally and globally. We follow the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, as well as other governmental agencies. We consult with Nexstar Legal for interpretation and adherence to the law.
FOLLOW NEXSTAR POLICIES:	Every journalist at Nexstar is responsible for maintaining the integrity of our news products. Failure to adhere to policies may result in disciplinary action.

OVERSIGHT

Nexstar Media Group, Inc., has written news guidelines which are reviewed and adhered to by all employees who manage content. News Directors are responsible for instilling quality control standards within their staff and implementing workflows and content management procedures that ensure proper editorial oversight of broadcast and digital staff.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Nexstar policies require that all writing and reporting must be the work of the writer(s), producer(s), and reporter(s) involved in publishing or broadcasting a story. AI and AI tools should not be used to replace human judgment and/or critical thinking. Any use of AI by our newsrooms must be disclosed to the audience in a transparent fashion.

EDITORIAL INDEPENDENCE

Nexstar journalists at all levels must maintain editorial independence. The company follows the Radio Television Digital News Association Code of Ethics, which can be found on the RTDNA website.

SUSTAINABILITY

OUR CORE BELIEFS

We produce local and national news content that is fact-based and unbiased, and meets the highest standards of journalistic integrity.

- Text to Speech: Nexstar complies with the FCC's Text to Speech regulations which relay significant news events, such as severe weather, through the SAP channel.
- Video Descriptions: Nexstar complies with FCC mandates regarding audio description for television programming to enhance accessibility for individuals who are blind or visually impaired

SUSTAINABILITY

OUR CORE BELIEFS

We respect our audience and customers by utilizing industry best practices to protect consumer privacy and personally identifiable information.

PRODUCT

DATA PRIVACY AND SECURITY

We are focused on the safety and security of our own and our customer and consumer data.

Privacy

We respect our audience and customers by utilizing what we consider to be industry best practices to protect our customer privacy and personally identifiable information. We are focused on the safety and security of our own and our customer data. Our privacy policy can be found on our website: <https://www.nexstar.tv/privacy-policy/>.

Cybersecurity

We recognize the importance of maintaining the confidence and trust of our customers, suppliers, employees, audiences, and communities by securing our data and information security. In managing our cyber risk, we utilize the National Institute of Standards and Technology Framework for Improving Critical Infrastructure Cybersecurity (the "NIST Framework") issued by the U.S. government as a guideline to manage our cybersecurity-related risk. In addition, we have established security control requirements for our third party vendors based on global standards.

Our day-to-day cybersecurity efforts are led operationally by our Chief Technology and Digital Officer and Senior Vice President, Technology who respectively have more than 10 and 25 years of networking and information technology management or executive experience, and oversee a team of in-house cybersecurity specialists.

Our Cybersecurity Committee, comprised of representatives from key management groups including accounting, finance, legal, internal audit, communications, and information technology, also supports our cybersecurity efforts. As part of its role providing independent oversight of the key risks facing Nexstar, the Board and its Audit Committee, devote regular and thorough attention to our cybersecurity risk.

SUSTAINABILITY

OUR CORE BELIEFS

We embrace the communities in which we operate and pride ourselves on our service with non-profit organizations, charitable sponsorships and donations, and outreach to those in need.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

NATIONAL INITIATIVES

Founder's Day of Caring

Nexstar's Founder's Day of Caring occurs each year in June. Staff members across the company receive paid time off for volunteer work in their communities. The choice of which organizations to support is made at the local level, and covers a wide range of charities and social service agencies.

Remarkable Women

Nexstar's "Remarkable Women" initiative celebrates local women who inspire, lead, and pave the way for other women to succeed. Each year's winner is selected from a pool of nominees from across each of Nexstar's 116 markets. The winner is announced during a special program airing on NewsNation during International Women's Month and awarded $25,000 to contribute to the charitable organizations of her choice.

Project Roadblock

Each year, Nexstar and all of its television stations participate in "Project Roadblock," a national multiplatform program aimed at preventing drunk driving. Sponsored by the Television Advertising Bureau, The NHTSA, and The Ad Council, every Nexstar TV station donates air-time and news coverage to this important issue.

Red Cross

Our TV stations partner with the Red Cross during times of crisis to assist victims affected by natural disasters in the communities we serve. In 2024, Nexstar's TV stations helped raise almost $600,000 for the Red Cross.

Nexstar Charitable Foundation

The Nexstar Media Charitable Foundation awards approximately $350,000+ in grants each year to charitable and non-profit organizations serving the communities in which we operate.

Compensation

An external compensation consultant advises the Board of Directors on the compensation and benefits package provided to members of the senior management team. The package includes:

- Salary, Bonus or Non-Equity Incentive Compensation, and Stock-Based Compensation
- Bonus or Non-Equity Incentive Compensation based on financial performance of the Company and its individual lines of business, along with other goals set by the CEO and the Board
- Stock-Based Compensation is comprised of time-based and performance-based restricted stock units which typically vest over 2-4 years; Performance-based RSUs are based on Nexstar stock performance relative to peers and/or operating performance of the company and/or its divisions relative to budget.

Senior management's compensation is primarily performance based. In 2023, 90% of our CEO's (Perry Sook's) compensation was from performance-based sources (i.e. bonus, non-equity incentive plan compensation and stock awards) and, on average, 81% of the other NEO's compensation was performance based.

OUR CORE BELIEFS

Nexstar believes that recruiting and retaining a talented and experienced senior management team best serves the long-term interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Succession Planning

The Company promotes the long-term stability of the senior management team through careful succession planning. In the last four years, we hired Michael Biard as President and Chief Operating Officer and Lee Ann Gliha as EVP and Chief Financial Officer to replace the retiring Tom Carter (former COO and CFO). We also hired Rachel Morgan as General Counsel to replace the retiring Elizabeth Ryder and promoted Andrew Alford to President, Broadcasting, to replace the retiring Tim Busch.

Other

Members of senior management are expected to meet minimum stock ownership requirements. The Company recently established a clawback policy that applies to members of senior management.

CORPORATE BEHAVIOR

Nexstar has long-established policies and procedures designed to ensure ethical corporate behavior. All employees are required annually to sign the Company's Business Conduct Policy. The Company has strict policies prohibiting insider trading, insuring compliance with antitrust laws, and maintains a rigorous internal audit function. Nexstar maintains a whistleblower hotline.

RISK OVERSIGHT

GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Our Board of Directors, through its Committees, evaluates and oversees risk areas. This includes the Company's overall risk reporting, as well as development of policies and programs to achieve short-term and long-term objectives.

Committee	Purpose	Members
Audit Committee	Oversees the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices of the Company. Provides general compliance and risk oversight, including as it relates to the Company's cybersecurity, artificial intelligence, and climate-related risks. Senior financial executives report to the Audit Committee at each quarterly committee meeting (or more frequently as may be required) on significant financial, accounting and other risk matters.	Geoff Armstrong (Chair, Independent) Dennis FitzSimons (Independent) Ellen Johnson (Independent)
Compensation Committee	Responsible for review and determination of compensation of the Company's directors and executive officers. Manages potential risks associated with our compensation programs, ensuring the program does not encourage executives to take unacceptable risks.	Jay Grossman (Chair, Independent) Bernadette Aulestia (Independent) Tony Wells (Independent)
Nominating and Governance Committee	Responsible for oversight of board and committee succession and establishing and effecting corporate governance principles.	John Muse (Chair, Independent) Tom McMillen (Independent) Lisbeth McNabb (Independent)
Board of Directors (with Senior Management)	Provides oversight of operational risk. Board members attend regular Board meetings to discuss and review the Company's strategy, operations, financial results and financial plan. Annually approves the Company's operating and capital budget, reviews its capital allocation plan, authorizes its share repurchase plan and any quarterly dividend payments and approves significant mergers and acquisitions. Confers with Nexstar's General Counsel and outside legal counsel, when necessary, in overseeing legal and regulatory risks.
